James Iverson vs. J. W. Ott: on trial.

E. T. Hendrickson vs. Wm. Marchant; judgment for plaintiff of $50 and costs on report of referee.

The County Court.

The court met yesterday in regular session. Mr. Lowe, of Hooper, asked for rebate on his taxes amounting to $25. The court allowed a rebate of $10. The petition I D. Moore for a reduction of $1,250 in the valuation of his property was denied. La Plata Gold Cake. Fort Douglas Jelly Roll. The report of the superintendent of the soor farm was filed, but no action was taken on it and it was not made public. It was ordered that two bridges be built rom Eden to the mouth of Middle Fork safion and two-culverts put in from Huntschile to Middle Fork A committee was appointed to look after the putting in of eight bridges through Middle Fork caffon, averaging from sixteen to twenty feet in averaging from sixteen to twenty feet in averaging from sixteen to twenty feet in length. Commissioner Foy reported the $2.580 appropriation for the opening of Middle Fork road nearly exhausted. He was given an extra appropriation of $150 to put the road in business shape. night. Also at the Atlas. Waiter Richey, who received injuries to the extent of several broken ribs in a runaway several days ago, is recuperating as well as can be expected. Sam M. Donnell, the insurance man, is Lester park, or the east half of it, is being plowed up. Water mains will be put in and next year the park will be made into a regular flower garden with fine taken up and tried. Burrows vs. Kimball was taken up and tried. Burrows brings suit for the recovery of $500 damages accepts.

Something very spley is likely to come up within a few days.

Despite the great preparations which had been made for the occasion of Messrs. Howes and Kock, the grand Opera house ball was attended by only about seventy couples. The hall was beautifully and artistically decorated. The music was fine and all in attendance enjoyed themselves greatly. It is a great disappointment to the Opera house bmanagement that their efforts to please and their expenditure of money should not be more greatly appreciated. At 11 o'clock the dancing when the dancing will be a standpoint of enjoyment the ball was an unqualified success, but from a financial point of view it was a lamentable fallure.
